Shaani has extensive experience in the real estate market. Combining her knowledge of real estate with her previous marketing background, Shaani has been instrumental in providing the most extensive service in tenant representation and leasing available today. She has been a key player in bringing Chico's, Chevys Fresh Mex, and numerous other tenants into River Park Square and the developing Spokane market. Shaani has also represented national tenants such as Hallmark Cards and the Potlatch Corporation, and has brokered for Ownerships, leasing and managing properties through out the city. Her skills have been invaluable to the market's growth and prestige.
